Disciple | Hope in the Book of Mark

Week 2: Kingdom Characteristics

Mark 1.40-3.6

Jesus and his companions went to the town of Capernaum. When the Sabbath day came, he went into the synagogue and began to teach. Suddenly, a man in the synagogue who was possessed by an evil spirit cried out. But Jesus reprimanded him. "Be quiet! Come out of the man," he ordered. At that, the evil spirit screamed, threw the man into a convulsion, and then came out of him.

After Jesus left the synagogue with James and John, they went to Simon and Andrew's home. Now Simon's mother-in-law was sick in bed with a high fever. They told Jesus about her right away. So he went to her bedside, took her by the hand, and helped her sit up. Then the fever left her, and she prepared a meal for them.

A man with leprosy came and knelt in front of Jesus, begging to be healed. "If you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean," he said.

Moved with compassion, Jesus reached out and touched him. "I am willing," he said. "Be healed!" Instantly the leprosy disappeared, and the man was healed.

Jesus went into the synagogue again and noticed a man with a deformed hand. Jesus said to the man with the deformed hand, "Come and stand in front of everyone. Then he said to the man, "Hold out your hand." So the man held out his hand, and it was restored!
