Week 14: God Provides & Protects -
'Kinsman Redeemer'

The Book of Ruth

Ruth 1

Ruth replied, "Don't ask me to leave you and turn back. Wherever you go, I will go; wherever you live, I will live. Your people will be my people, and your God will be my God. Whenever you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May the Lord punish me severely if I allow anything but death to separate us!"

"Don't call me Naomi," she responded. "Instead, call me Mara, for the Almighty has made life very bitter for me. I went away full, but the Lord has brought me home empty. Why call me Naomi when the Lord has caused me to suffer and the Almighty has sent such tragedy upon me?"

May the Lord, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge, reward you fully for what you have done."

Ruth 3

"I am your servant Ruth," she replied. "Spread the corner of your covering over me, for you are my family redeemer."

Ruth 4

Then the women of the town said to Naomi, "Praise the Lord, who has now provided a redeemer for your family! May this child be famous in Israel. May he restore your youth and care for you in your old age. For he is the son of your daughter-in-law who loves you and has been better to you than seven sons!"

And they named him Obed. He became the father of Jesse and the grandfather of David.
