

LEARN: Volume 6: Why is My Church Family Important?
Week 3: 'We Remember Together'

Matthew 26 & 1 Corinthians 11

20 When it was evening, Jesus sat down at the table with the Twelve. 21 While they were eating, he said, "I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me."

22 Greatly distressed, each one asked in turn, "Am I the one, Lord?"

23 He replied, "One of you who has just eaten from this bowl with me will betray me. 24 For the Son of Man must die, as the Scriptures declared long ago. But how terrible it will be for the one who betrays him. It would be far better for that man if he had never been born!"

25 Judas, the one who would betray him, also asked, "Rabbi, am I the one?"

And Jesus told him, "You have said it."

26 As they were eating, Jesus took some bread and blessed it. Then he broke it in pieces and gave it to the disciples, saying, "Take this and eat it, for this is my body."

27 And he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to God for it. He gave it to them and said, "Each of you drink from it, 28 for this is my blood, which confirms the covenant between God and his people. It is poured out as a sacrifice to forgive the sins of many. 29 Mark my words - I will not drink wine again until the day I drink it new with you in my Father's Kingdom."

23 For I pass on to you what I received from the Lord himself. On the night when he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread 24 and gave thanks to God for it. Then he broke it in pieces and said, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." 25 In the same way, he took the cup of wine after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant between God and his people - an agreement confirmed with my blood. Do this in remembrance of me as often as you drink it." 26 For every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are announcing the Lord's death until he comes again.

Join us for Bible Study
Thursday, June 23rd
at 6 pm.

Should modern-day believers care about the Feast of Trumpets or other such puzzling celebrations in the Bible? In this fascinating 8-week study, Davis says yes---and explains why! As she shares the cultural significance of these occasions, you'll come to appreciate how each feast is loaded with meaning---ultimately pointing to Jesus and his work in redemption.

K through 5th grades will be dismissed to Children's Church after Communion/Offering time.
