Searching for God

Week 6: 'Family Matters Pt. 1'

"A Christian is someone who has God as their Father."

John 1:6-13

6 God sent a man, John the Baptist, 7 to tell about the light so that everyone might believe because of his testimony. 8 John himself was not the light; he was simply a witness to tell about the light. 9 The one who is the true light, who gives light to everyone, was coming into the world.

10 He came into the very world he created, but the world didn't recognize him. 11 He came to his own people, and even they rejected him. 12 But to all who believed him and accepted him, he gave the right to become children of God. 13 They are reborn—not with a physical birth resulting from human passion or plan, but a birth that comes from God.

How would you define the word "Christianity?" If someone approached you on the street, it might be difficult for us to come up with a succinct answer quickly, because while I'm certain we all have an answer to the question, those answers, while likely similar, are probably also fairly complex and varied.

This week at New Heights, we'll discuss the fact that a simple and accurate answer to the question "what is a Christian" is just this: "A Christian is someone who has God as their Father."
