Searching for God

Week 4: 'A Jealous God'

"We must remember that our God is a jealous God."

Exodus 20:2-6

2 "I am the Lord your God, who rescued you from the land of Egypt, the place of your slavery.

3 "You must not have any other god but me.

4 "You must not make for yourself an idol of any kind or an image of anything in the heavens or on the earth or in the sea. 5 You must not bow down to them or worship them, for I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God who will not tolerate your affection for any other gods. I lay the sins of the parents upon their children; the entire family is affected—even children in the third and fourth generations of those who reject me. 6 But I lavish unfailing love for a thousand generations on those who love me and obey my commands.

Have you ever been jealous before? Most of us reading this, if we're honest, can probably answer "yes."

Jealousy has a way of bringing out the worst in us. It brings out our insecurities, makes us question our loyalties, and has us wondering about our own sense of self-worth.

Indeed, it makes "green-eyed monsters" of us all, doesn't it?

We tend to equate the emotion of jealousy with negative feedback/attention, don't we? Interesting then, that God should, in Exodus 20:5, describe himself specifically as a "jealous God." This Sunday, we'll talk about why God introduces himself to us as such, and what insights we can gain from worshipping a jealous God, as we seek to know him better.
