Beautiful Music

Exodus 3:7-10

God didn't make a mistake when he called you into his service.

Exodus 3:7-10

Then the Lord told him, "I have certainly seen the oppression of my people in Egypt. I have heard their cries of distress because of their harsh slave drivers. Yes, I am aware of their suffering. 8 So I have come down to rescue them from the power of the Egyptians and lead them out of Egypt into their own fertile and spacious land. It is a land flowing with milk and honey—the land where the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites now live. 9 Look! The cry of the people of Israel has reached me, and I have seen how harshly the Egyptians abuse them. 10 Now go, for I am sending you to Pharaoh. You must lead my people Israel out of Egypt." NLT

Ever wonder "why me?" Why does God want to use me, when it often seems like there are more qualified, more talented, and more capable people out there - why me?

I may not necessarily have the answer to that question, but I know that when God calls us to something, he doesn't make a mistake. He sees in us something exceptional when he looks our way. You know what he sees?

He sees himself.

The Bible tells us that when God created us, he created us in his image (Genesis 1:27), and he animated us with his breath (Genesis 2:7). When we become believers in Christ, we're filled with his Spirit (Acts 2:38), and as a result of that, we're each given unique spiritual gifts to go about doing spiritual work for the kingdom (1 Corinthians 12:7). We are each called to be of service to God's kingdom.

Having given you some scriptures to investigate in the paragraph above, we've laid the groundwork for a conversation about you and your giftedness; you and your calling; you and your mission that we'll talk more about this Sunday.

Hope to see you then!
