

“Don’t Push the Red Button!”

Luke 4:10-13

For the Scriptures say, ‘He will order his angels to protect and guard you. And they will hold you up with their hands so you won’t even hurt your foot on a stone.’” Jesus responded, “The Scriptures also say, ‘You must not test the Lord your God.’” When the devil had finished tempting Jesus, he left him until the next opportunity came. NLT

I wonder what Satan’s impression of Jesus was during that encounter in the desert. We could certainly speculate, but I would be willing to hazard a guess that Satan was nervous about Jesus after the events of verse 13 in the passage above. You see, every other person that Satan had encountered, literally every single man, woman, and child from Adam and Eve on, Satan had been able to entice that person to sin. But not Jesus. Something was different about him. So different, in fact, that the devil “left him alone” until the next opportunity came. Jesus isn’t like most people. He stood up to temptation where we’ve all failed. That’s amazing enough, but even more amazing is the fact that Jesus shares his victory over sin with us! Come join us on Sunday, and we’ll discuss things a bit further. - Zach
