

“Even Bullies Need Love”

Luke 6:35-36

Love your enemies! Do good to them. Lend to them without expecting to be repaid. Then your reward from heaven will be very great, and you will truly be acting as children of the Most-High, for he is kind to those who are unthankful and wicked. 36 You must be compassionate, just as your Father is compassionate.” NLT

It’s easy to love people who love us, or even to love people who are nice to us, but, what about our enemies? Or, maybe you wouldn’t go so far as to call people “enemies”, but they’re certainly antagonistic toward you. As we near election day in our country, we hear nasty rhetoric, we see mean-hearted posts on social media, and we experience candidates slinging mud at each other in a desperate scramble to earn your vote. Outside of that, there are people who cut us off in traffic, people who demand your time/money/attention who probably don’t deserve either, and sometimes even our own families who say they’re rooting for us but seem to be better at tearing us down rather than building us up.

Good thing we have a break from all that at church, right? Sometimes people struggle to get along, but Jesus teaches us that we should love our enemies and pray for those persecute us. That might be easier said than done, but this weekend, we’ll talk about a few ways that we can do it. See you this weekend at New Heights - Zach
