

John 15:13

“Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.” NIV

We are never more like Jesus than we are when we do those things that are uniquely “him.” Forgiving those who don’t deserve forgiveness, loving those who don’t deserve love, putting your life on the line for someone who you consider an “enemy.”

Paul tells us that while we were still enemies of God, Jesus was willing to lay down his life for us. His own words recorded above in John 15 illustrate that he has great love for friends and enemies alike.

We want to thank our veterans for putting their lives on the line for their friends, loved ones, and even those they’ve never had the opportunity to meet. How can we follow their example - and the example of Jesus - and risk everything for others?
