

Luke 6:43-44

“No good tree bears bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit. Each tree is recognized by its own fruit. People do not pick figs from thornbushes, or grapes from briars.” NIV

If you like to talk to bananas; if a pear can make you smile, if you like to waltz with pineapples, up and down the produce aisle...

Okay, you get the idea. We’re spoofing VeggieTales.

I was an 8th grade camper at Mahoning Valley when I first heard about VeggieTales. The idea that someone could use computer animated talking veggies to tell Bible stories seemed to me at the time to be a stroke of pure genius. Of course, reading through Luke, I see that Jesus had the idea first - well, with fruit, anyway.

This weekend at New Heights, we’ll be talking about the type of fruit we should be exhibiting as we work to do life in God’s kingdom. Is our fruit ripe? Is it nourishing to others? Does it have a solid flavor? We’ll talk about all this and more on Sunday. See you then! - Zach
