

Isaiah 9:1-2

Nevertheless, that time of darkness and despair will not go on forever. The land of Zebulun and Naphtali will be humbled, but there will be a time in the future when Galilee of the Gentiles, which lies along the road that runs between the Jordan and the sea, will be filled with glory. The people who walk in darkness will see a great light. For those who live in a land of deep darkness, a light will shine. NLT

Well, I'm not sure if you've noticed or not, but it seems to me that now more than ever, the world needs something good. It needs some good news; it needs hope, among other things. We're going to put our study of Luke on hold for the holidays, and focus on something the world needs now more than ever. It needs the gospel message of Jesus Christ.

This Christmas season, let's allow the hope of the message of Jesus to permeate us anew, to fill us with joy, and to share that joy with our loved ones. Because now more than ever, people need something. And what they need is something we have to share.

This week, we'll begin by talking about how people need light. Something to help them see through the darkness, and to light the way when things get complicated. Come join us this weekend, and we'll explain things a bit more. Hope to see you Sunday!
