Luke 2:15

When the angels had returned to heaven, the shepherds said to each other, "Let's go to Bethlehem! Let's see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about." NLT

If you've ever spent much time with a junior high aged kid - whether you're a teacher, or a parent, or you just remember being a junior high aged kid, odds are, you've dealt with some self-esteem issues. Junior High kids are particularly susceptible to feelings of self-doubt and self-awareness because of the changes in their lives, both physical and otherwise.

Maybe you yourself struggle with finding value in your identity. Regardless of age, we can all from time to time find ourselves wondering if we have any real worth. Remember, if you ever find yourself struggling, that God sent a grand choir of angels to the lowly shepherds on the night Jesus was born, with instructions to go and see the child, and tell the wonderful story that a savior had come! If he finds such value in them, wouldn't he find value in you, too?

I'm playing hooky this weekend, so Collin will explore all of this a bit further with you. I'll see you back at New Heights next week.

-Zach, your friendly neighborhood lead pastor
