Joel 2:29-30

<sup>29</sup> In those days I will pour out my Spirit even on servants—men and women alike. <sup>30</sup> And I will cause wonders in the heavens and on the earth— blood and fire and columns of smoke. NLT

The Empire Strikes Back, Home Alone 2: Lost in New York, Terminator 2: Judgement Day, The Two Towers, Babe 2: A Pig in the City

The preceding are films that serve as sequels to fan favorite movies that have been treasured for generations. While in many cases, sequels don't hold up to how great the original movie can be, these are a few rare exceptions that are arguably even better than the movies that came before them. Especially Empire. Why does this matter for our Sunday morning time together? As we get into our final Easter Eggs sermon, we're going to look at the fact that Jesus, before ascending to heaven, passes his ministry on to his disciples. I like to think of the church as something of a "sequel" to Jesus' ministry. He tells his disciples in John 14 that not only will they continue his ministry, but that they will do even greater things than he has. COULD that be possible? Greater things than even Jesus did? When we remember that he gives power to their actions, and that he only says this because he himself is going home to heaven, I think we can believe it. Come out to New Heights this Sunday and we'll explore this together, and talk about what it means to carry on Jesus' ministry.
