A Long “Luke” at the Book of Acts

“We Don’t Talk About That Stuff”

Jesus Casts Out Demons

Luke 8:26-33

A Study on the
Biblical Works of Luke
Luke 1:1 - Acts 28:31
2024-2025

Romans 8:1-2

So now there is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus. And because you belong to him, the power of the life-giving Spirit has freed you from the power of sin that leads to death. NLT

We all probably have things from our past that we’d rather not talk about, or skeletons that we keep locked neatly away in the closet, or any given number of elephants in the room we’d just love to ignore. I guess somehow, we have effectively tricked ourselves into thinking that if we ignore these things, they’ll go away. But, that didn’t work with the bully who took your lunch money as a kid (or, at least, it didn’t work with my bully) and it’s not going to work with this stuff, either.

We often stay quiet about things we don’t understand well in the church. But I’d like challenge us to consider what we can learn - what can be learned - from the Bible about specifically the powers of darkness at work in the world, and what we should do when we find ourselves encountering it. Remember that Jesus offers us his help and his presence in this life. We shouldn’t be shy about calling on him when we need that help.

Hope to see you Sunday!
