John 15:13

"There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends." NLT

Did you know that Memorial Day used to be called "Decoration Day"? It referred to a holiday that used to occur on May 30th, and only in the last 50 or so years had it been reorganized to the holiday we know it as today. Decoration Day was a day for decorating the graves and headstones of those brave soldiers who gave their lives so that we could be free; whether they had fought to procure that freedom or to maintain it, on Decoration Day, it was clear to any who would pass by a cemetery who had given their lives for their country.

As kingdom citizens, I think we could learn something from that. What if we, in our dedication to be like Jesus, decorated our lives in a such a way that people could tell just by looking at us or spending a little time with us that we were citizens of his kingdom? Wouldn't that be something?

We'll talk a bit more about it on Sunday!
