A Long “Luke” at the Book of Acts

“Well That’s Not Fair!”

The Death of John the Baptist

Luke 9:7-9

A Study on the
Biblical Works of Luke
Luke 1:1 - Acts 28:31
2024-2025

2 Timothy 4:5

But you should keep a clear mind in every situation. Don't be afraid of suffering for the Lord. Work at telling others the Good News and fully carry out the ministry God has given you. NLT

If you've ever uttered the four words that make up our sermon title for this weekend, odds are, it simply means that you're human. We've all experienced things in our lives that are (or at least seem to us to be) unfair, and when that happens, it can be difficult for us to try and figure out where God is in all that's happening. If you resonate with that, it might comfort you to know that you're certainly not the only one who feels that way, and that even our heroes from the stories of the Bible have faced situations where they were left scratching their heads. The good news is that no matter what happens to us in our lives, God loves us, he created us, and when bad things happen, he still rules on high and is working out all situations for our good, even if it doesn't necessarily always feel that way, we can be confident that God is still very much in control and that his love for us is indeed intact.

We'll chat a bit more on Sunday. Hope to see you then!
