

Galatians 5:25

Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit. NIV

How do you find peace that passes understanding in a world that’s largely seemed to pass peace by? Is it just me, or does the world seem to prefer chaos to peace anymore? Seems like you can’t go anywhere but that folks are trying to distract themselves; whether it’s a phone they can’t put down, a video game they can’t look away from, or some other device that is barking or squawking at them getting them into trouble.

Sometimes I wonder - and in fact, I have to admit that in the past, I’ve been guilty of this - if folks aren’t trying to distract themselves because they fear being alone with their own thoughts if things were to quiet down. I get that. I’ve dealt with depression and anxiety before. But what if I told you there’s a biblical formula for getting rid of anxiety, and worry, and other distractions that can steal our joy and rob us of our peace. Don’t believe me? Well, first, read Philippians 4, and then come Sunday ready to discuss it. Have a peaceful week! We’ll see you Sunday at New Heights.

We need Mentors & Prayer Partners

Just as God shows up in the person of Jesus and loves us unconditionally, mentoring a student one-on-one allows us to share unconditional love with a child in need of support. Ask how you can get involved in our Kids Hope USA program.
