

Galatians 5:25

Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit. NIV

How many of you can draw your favorite cartoon character from memory? Or if not a cartoon character, you can describe in detail a special place that you haven't actually visited in years. It had been at least ten years in-between visits to Kings Island, but I didn't need a map to tell me where The Beast was. And even though I've not been to Grandma and Grandpa's central Michigan home since 2006, I'm fairly confident that I could set up the furniture exactly how Grandma had it arranged.

Usually, when we think of "faithfulness" we think of commitments we've been faithful to, or people we've been faithful to; relationships where we've been faithful to the other person, things like that. But when Paul uses the word "faithfulness" as a fruit of the Spirit, he is talking about this concept, but more. To be faithful in this way means to be so committed to someone and something that you internalize the characteristics of someone/something. It illustrates that the relationship was valuable to you - in this case, relationship can also refer to your fondness of/familiarity with someone/something.

God's faithfulness to us has very much to do with his fondness of and familiarity with and commitment to us. And as it is part of the fruit that comes from knowing him, it also means that we ought to be faithful to others, no matter what. We'll leave it at that for now, but we'll talk through it more this weekend at New Heights. Hope to see you there!
