Matthew 6:6

But those who trust in the Lord will find new strength. They will soar high on wings like eagles. They will run and not grow weary. They will walk and not faint. NLT

It makes sense for us to be talking about what it means to be of service to the church - what our missions as Christians is - as we visit Mahoning Valley Camp this weekend. I'm excited to share with you out there at camp, where I first decided to enter full-time Christian Service to begin with.

You probably know - either because you've heard me talk about it or because you've popped your head in the office - that I decorated my office with SuperHero action figures and posters. The reason why is more than because I am giant kid, but extends beyond that to include that I've always been inspired by acts of heroism - true stories and fictional alike - and have long been inspired - back to my earliest days - of wanting to be of help and service to others.

This weekend, we'll talk a little about our new mission statement, and what it means for us going forward as a church and as individual Christians. Let's soar together for Christ! Hope to see you this weekend out at Mahoning Valley.
