Isaiah 40:31

But those who trust in the Lord will find new strength. They will soar high on wings like eagles. They will run and not grow weary. They will walk and not faint. NLT

I can't be the only one who's a little bummed out that Christmas is over, right? I mean, is there anyone out there who enjoys putting away decorations, sweeping up tree needles, and saying "goodbye" to relatives you won't get to see for awhile? I can't be alone in that.

Turns out, some 60% of Americans struggle with what's commonly known as "the Post-Holiday Blues". It's not exactly a clinical depression, just a widely recognized phenomenon that basically states that we're sad when Christmas is over. But you know, the reality is that while the Christmas season might be over with for now, the work of Christmas - the work that Jesus came to do and gave us to complete - is still needing to be done. We'll celebrate the Christmas season again, but for now, the work of Christmas awaits!

See you Sunday! - Zach
