Hebrews 13:8-9

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. So do not be attracted by strange, new ideas. Your strength comes from God's grace, not from rules about food, which don't help those who follow them. NLT

We're going to take a break from Luke this week and return to a discussion when started having when I first arrived here at New Heights back in late 2023. If you'll recall, we started chatting about the theology of our relationship with God in a series we were then calling "Knowing God", which at its core was not about puffing ourselves up with knowledge so much as it was giving us a chance to look at how God's character works from a relational standpoint - what does it mean to be in relationship with him and how does that work? We ended that discussion before I was truly ready to because so seasonal things were happening and it made sense to focus on those things, but since my camp responsibilities stoked those old flames (and because it became difficult to do two things at once) we're going to revisit that old series with a look at our unchanging God - what does it mean that God is the same today, yesterday, forever; what does it say about his relationship to/with us that he doesn't change? Come join us this Sunday at New Heights and find out!

See you then! - Zach
