

Psalm 37:3-4

Trust in the Lord and do good; dwell in the land and enjoy safe pasture. Take delight in the Lord, and he will give you the desires of your heart. NIV

I remember very well the first superhero movie that I didn't like. In fact, it's more than I didn't like it - I categorically hated it. I won't name the movie, because I don't necessarily want to drag someone else's work through the mud, but I'll tell you that it was the third movie in a trilogy that just didn't stick the landing. The first two were excellent films; the second of which ended with a cliffhanger, and I waited four long years to see how my heroes were going to fare, only to find that the director/writers of the movie didn't understand the characters in quite the way the audience did, and, well, suffice it to say, they didn't exactly do a great job of paying off the setup the previous movie's team had put in place. Do you ever wish you could fast-forward to the end of a movie, or maybe look at the last chapter of a book to make sure that things turn out okay before deciding to really invest time in a story? Had I been able to do that with this movie that I'm complaining about, I would have saved my time, saved my money, and written my own ending. The good news is, when it comes to your story, God has a vision in mind - a consistent vision and plans for good - if we're willing to trust him with the outcome of our story. Come see us at New Heights this weekend and we'll get into it.

See you then! - Zach
