

Deuteronomy 31:8

The Lord himself goes before you and will be with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged.” NIV

We’ve likely all had times in our lives when we’ve struggled with this or that and despite prayer after prayer, it almost seems like we’re alone. Have you ever experienced that? If so, take comfort in the fact that you’re not as alone as you think. Lots of people have felt that way - even Jesus. You see, before going through the agony of the cross, Jesus asked the Father if this cup could pass him by, but, then soon after that, he was arrested and, well, you know the rest. It’s not that the Father was ignoring Jesus’ prayer - the key word in said prayer “if” there be any other way... and the reality is, there was no other way. If there was, I’m sure the all-wise omnipotent creator of the universe would have discovered it. But that’s just it, you see. Jesus was willing from the beginning to give his life if it were necessary, and so when he quotes Psalm 22 on the cross, it’s less about him complaining and more to do with him being honestly submitted to the Father’s plan. We’ll talk about this more on Sunday, but, what we see Jesus doing - even when he doesn’t get the prayer result he wants - is that he trusts the Father to know what is best, and to work for that in all things. Come see us this weekend and we’ll chat through it together.

See you then! - Zach
