

Acts 1:8

“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere – in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” NLT

Finish the jingle: “I don’t wanna grow up...”

You got it? Chances are, if you ever shopped at Toys R Us, you got it right away. I’m sad to say that I haven’t sang that song in a good while; even though I’ve been a grown man for more than half my life at this point, I still fondly remember days spent at Toys R Us, picking out my favorite toys and video games. And really, that was only a few years ago!

But Paul says there comes a time that we must put childish things behind us and say “goodbye” to that part of our lives. Saying “goodbye” is never easy, but it’s often necessary, and when the time came for Jesus to say “goodbye” to his disciples after his resurrection, they had to grow up really quickly in order to take up the ministry he had left behind for them to do. And so must we. This Sunday, we’ll talk about what it means to grow up in our faith and do the active work of ministering in Jesus’ stead. Come see us at New Heights this weekend and we’ll get into it. - Zach
