

Ephesians 6:10-11

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. NIV

This is my own anecdotal very subjective opinion, but, it seems to me that the world isn't kind to Fathers. It just seems like television shows have taken us from Father Knows Best to Dumb and Dumber and dads like Ward Cleaver and Mike Brady have been replaced with dimwitted dullards like Homer Simpson or Al Bundy - both of whom, to be fair, have redeemable qualities and may be entertaining to watch but, let's be honest - they're not exactly doing men any favors by giving them someone to live up to. Thank goodness for Bandit Heeler, or we wouldn't have any modern examples of a solid TV dad.

That said, this Sunday at New Heights, we want to honor the dads in our lives and talk about someone they can look up to. We'll also, as we do so, continue covering the armor of God that Paul lists out in Ephesians 6.

Happy Father's day to all the dads, and we hope to see you Sunday at New Heights!
