From 1 Peter 3:15

Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. NIV

The first time I ever presented anything in front of a crowd at church was way back when I was in the 7th grade. My home church hosted an annual Youth Sunday, where all of the elements of the service, from worship, to communion and even preaching - were handled by members of the Jr/Sr High Youth Group. I had a little card trick that I opened up the service with; I don't remember much about it other than that the point of it was to reveal a card that bore the image of Jesus' face - "the king of hearts" - is this your card? Clever, right? Trouble was, I was pretty nervous back then. It might be hard to believe, but I wasn't always as comfortable in front of a crowd as I am now. Fast forward 30 years, and I feel much more at ease in front of people, for which I am grateful because I've got to tell you, not only do I consider it a joy and privilege to present a message from God's Word week in and week out, but I feel as though God has genuinely called me to it - there's a great sense of purpose I derive from being able to preach. So, as we talk about the subject of preaching this week, I just wanted to thank you for allowing me the opportunity to serve using these gifts here at New Heights.
