2 Corinthians 5:17

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here! NIV

The night that I was baptized still sticks out very strongly in my memory. It was a cold October Thursday night in 1993, meaning that as of a couple of weeks ago, I'm spiritually 36 years old. I think I like that better than telling people that I'm 44, but I digress. The pastor of the church we had been visiting came to our home to meet with us and discuss the church. It wasn't long after that that my dad, my mom, and myself were in the car on the way up to the church to be immersed. The preacher tried to encourage us to wait until Sunday when the baptistry could be heated up. But we were far to eager to get it done. So, with teeth chattering and faith unflinching, one by one, we got into the baptistry and were immersed into Christ. I wonder if you have a similar story? I have long considered baptism to be the formal beginning of our relationship with Christ, similar to how a wedding ceremony formally christens a couple, it's a wonderful memory to look back on and remind one's self of the commitment that was made to follow. As we continue talking through our Worship Service, we'll put baptism under the microscope this week and answer the question - "Why do we baptize folks at New Heights?" Hope to see you there! -Zach K, your Friendly Neighborhood Lead Pastor
